NC Insurance Agents to Attend 2008 NC Symposium & Exhibition

(Greensboro, NC) -- The North Carolina Association of Health Underwriters www.ncahu.org, an organization of health insurance agents, brokers, consultants and benefit specialists, will host the 2008 North Carolina Insurance Symposium & Exhibition April 7-9 at the Benton Convention Center in Winston-Salem, NC. This year's conference theme will be "Get Smart – Sales, Service, & Success".

Over 600 insurance professionals from all over North Carolina will gather at this year's event to hear from industry leaders including North Carolina Insurance Commissioner Jim Long and National Association of Health Underwriters President Beth Ashmore. NCAHU state President, Johnny Dawkins of Fayetteville, says "NCAHU continues to improve its members' ability to meet the ever-changing health insurance needs of all North Carolinians. This 19th Annual Symposium and Exhibition will be one of the best ever."

Insurance professionals will also learn about the latest life, health, dental, disability, and vision products and services from over 80 exhibitors in the exhibit hall. You can learn more about the conference at www.ncsymposium.org.

NCAHU, with nearly 1,000 insurance professionals as members throughout the state, is a chapter of the National Association of Health Underwriters, which represents more than 20,000 health insurance agents, brokers, consultants and professionals. Its members serve employers and individual consumers in accessing and purchasing affordable health insurance and related products.
